

HOLY WEEK 2026

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

As normal except: half an hour corporate silent prayer in Chapel from 11.30 until the Eucharist at 12; addresses given by +Dominic Walker at the Eucharist

Maunder Thursday

No Midday Eucharist; the Eucharist including washing of the feet will be at 7pm.

Good Friday

No Midday Eucharist. Sext and None will be said at 11.30 in the Chapel, followed by the beginning of the Good Friday liturgy at noon (the Passion Narrative and preaching by +Dominic). Between this liturgy and 2.30 there will be the opportunity to pray the Stations of the Cross around the grounds or to use the Chapel or grounds for silent prayer.

At 2.30 the Conclusion of the Three Hours will take place in the Campo Santo.

Holy Saturday

No Midday Eucharist; the Easter Vigil Mass will begin at 7.30pm. Please arrive by 7.15 if possible.

Easter Day

The Eucharist will be at 10am.

All are welcome – but it helps us to put out the right number of chairs if we know you're coming! Please call us or email community@tymawrconvent.com to let us know you're joining us (and if you have any access needs). We look forward to praying through the week with you all.
